Judges shows God's grace by demonstrating that it was through the mercy of God that Israel was not absorbed into the pagan nations around her. There was a recurring cycle during the period that the judges ruled: the people's disobedience and rejection of God, followed by their crying out to Him, and then the nation's repentance, and God's deliverance through a judge

Obadiah is the prophet that tells the Israelites that Edom (Esau's descendants) will not be the nation that the Messiah will come from, but He will come through the line of Jacob.

Malachi is the last prophet of the grace of God. He tells Israel about the coming of Jesus and the coming of the prophet John the Baptist.

The book of Isaiah, which Pr. Walt is teaching on Wednesdays, is filled with Messianic prophecies to Israel and to the church. Many of these were fulfilled through Jesus' birth, life, death, and resurrection, yet we await those that will be fulfilled at His second coming.
